

Pressurized Equipment Safety

Exercise prudence when working at managed pressure operations

- Always use your PPE.
- Follow the procedures covered in pressure operations training.
- Assume that all pressurized equipment has the potential to release pressure without warning.
- Use and monitor gauges.
- Test safety controls on a periodic basis.
- If pressure must be released, use a choke and release.

